Gulf Coast's Folorunsho Akande Receives Hal Chasey "Scholar Athlete" Award

The Hal Chasey Scholar Athlete Award honors student-athletes who have dedicated themselves to academic success and community service, with a gpa of 3.3 and higher on a scale of 4.0. Folorunsho "AK" has successfully passed 50 credit hours with a cumulative gpa of 3.94. AK has also participated in the following college and community activities: (1) Served as a Student Ambassador for the African American Student Union Organization. (2) Served as Vice President for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Huddle. (3) Participated in over fifteen community service activities including mentoring (reading days) at local elementary schools, assisted a local elementary school at their fish fry fundraising event and participated in basketball camps for children in our community. AK is a successful student-athlete and outstanding citizen. He is a great representation of the Hal Chasey award. We are proud of you!
